I just got off the phone with [REDACTED]. He volunteered to me that Pat is retiring, the Sales team is staying on due to retirements at United and Mike G. is planning to stay on and be a part of the US Sugar team.

[REDACTED] is going to make it known they are not happy about this. They view this as 1 less competitor and now 3 companies account for 75% of the market.

Confidentially, Mike inferred yesterday that Pat will retire when the deal closes but that he was hopeful that "99% of them" would stay. [REDACTED]

Also, Imperial had a small but effective sales team. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I have to think this is something that US Sugar is very interested in, especially after back filling beet force majeure volumes at discounted prices for the last year.

[REDACTED] So far, the only thing that has changed is there's one less competitor in the market.

Thanks Adam – how do you think this will affect you / the market? Did Imperial have a strong sales team? Will it impact pricing / price structure for different products (I'm thinking will United view their larger Cane footprint to mean they have two different segment offerings in terms of Northern beet/ Southern cane) ?

FYI.

Ron is confirming that Imperial's sugar will be marketed by United.

Also, for the first time in a long time he calls out 2021/22 Gulf pricing as (gross) @ $38.00 fob Gramercy.
